11. [redacted] Mark Kleiman, Legislative Assistant to Representative Les Aspin (D., Wis.), called to review the statutory, constitutional and Executive Order basis for classification systems and the difference between security clearance for determining suitability and loyalty for handling classified material and the controlling of access to sensitive compartmented information in furtherance of the need-to-know principle. Kleiman said he would review the citations and other works I had cited for him and in response to his query, I told him he could call [redacted] OGC, for any further elaboration.

12. [redacted] Called Vernon C. Loen, Deputy Assistant for Legislative Affairs (House) at the White House, and determined State Department will handle the Executive Branch response to Representative Charles Diggs' (D., Mich.) 29 June 1975 cable to multiple addressees, including CIA, on U.S. dealings with Zaire. No action is required of CIA.

13. [redacted] Called Werner W. Brandt, Legislative Assistant to Representative Thomas Foley (D., Wash.), Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, by way of follow up to the Director's conversation with Chairman Foley last night. I told Brandt I just wanted to be in touch with him in view of the cancellation and to advise him we had also been in touch with the Majority and Minority Staffs of the Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee, Senate Government Operations Committee, on the same subject. I explained we had briefed the Majority Staff last week but the figures used in that briefing were now inaccurate and would have to be changed. I told him I just wanted him to understand (should he hear of our session with the Permanent Investigations Subcommittee staff) that we were not refusing a briefing of the Committee while talking with another group. Brandt said he understood completely but asked if it would be possible for Robert Bor, Hyde Murray, Gene Moose and himself to come to the Agency and sit down with [redacted] in the next few weeks to discuss the whole situation. I said I was sure this could be arranged and I would be back in touch with him when we had some relatively firm figures to talk about.

14. [redacted] Called Bill Ashworth, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, by way of follow up to his conversation with [redacted] about references by Brezhnev to the "typhoon." I told him this was not an allegorical reference, that in fact the Soviets do have some sort of follow-on program to their latest submarine but we have virtually no information on this. I mentioned, however, that the Soviets had made reference to the term "typhoon" before.
